INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

This Regulation on the Procedure for Formation and Work of Rosneft Board of Directors Committees is drawn up in compliance with Federal Law № 208-FZ dated December 26, 1995 On Joint-Stock Companies, the Corporate Governance Code recommended by the Bank of Russia for application by joint-stock companies with listed securities, the Charter of the Rosneft Oil Company, and the Regulation on the Board of Directors of the Rosneft Oil Company. It sets the procedure for formation and work of committees of the Company¹ Board of Directors.

1. FORMATION OF COMPANY BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMMITTEES

1.1. In order to perform its functions, the Company Board of Directors shall form committees² for the purpose of preliminary consideration of most important issues within the remit of the Company Board of Directors and preparation of recommendations for the Board of Directors to take decisions thereon.

1.2. The Company shall have the following standing committees:

- strategic scheduling committee;
- audit committee;
- human resources (HR) and remuneration committee.

If necessary, by a decision of the Company Board of Directors, other standing and ad hoc (to address specific matters) committees may be formed, as well as subcommittees (based on existing committees) with dedicated functions to review matters within the remit of the existing committee but requiring a more focused consideration.

Subcommittees may be created for a set period of time (to address specific tasks) and without a time limit. In the latter case, the committee which a subcommittee is based on shall at least once a year review the relevance of and need for such a subcommittee to then present it to the Company Board of Directors.

The committees shall act pursuant to this Regulation and to regulations setting the procedure for the work and defining the tasks, functions and authority of each committee approved by the Company Board of Directors.

A subcommittee shall act by virtue of the Company Board of Directors' decision on its creation. Such a decision shall specify:

- the name of a subcommittee;
- the tasks and functions of a subcommittee;
- the membership of a subcommittee, which, apart from members of the respective committee, may include members of other committees of the Company Board of Directors and other persons having the right expertise and competence, and may also approve the Regulation on the respective subcommittee.

1.3. The committees (subcommittees) shall not be governance bodies of the Company and shall not have the power to act on behalf of the Company Board of Directors. With regard to the Company Board of Directors, decisions of the committees shall have the status of recommendations.

Decisions of a subcommittee shall have the status of recommendations to the respective committee and, at the committee's decision, may be brought to the notice of the Company Board of Directors.

² Committees - standing committees of the Company Board of Directors.

1.4. The committees shall be formed at the first meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors, and should this for objective reasons not be possible, no later than one month after election of the new Board of Directors.

1.5. The committees shall be formed from among members of the Company Board of Directors who have professional experience and expertise in the respective field, and from among other competent persons.

With regard to the Audit Committee and the HR and Remuneration Committee, only such members of the Company Board of Directors may be members of these committees who are independent directors³, and should this for objective reasons not be possible, a majority of the members of these committees shall be independent directors, and the rest of the members of these committees may be members of the Company Board of Directors who are not executive directors⁴.

Should there arise circumstances affecting the independent status of a committee member, the committee member shall immediately notify the Company Board of Directors of such circumstances.

1.6. Membership of the committees shall be formed in such a way as to enable a comprehensive discussion of matters submitted for their review reflecting potential difference of opinion.

Committee members may be elected to the same committee an unlimited number of times.

Each committee shall be comprised of at least three members, and one member of the Company Board of Directors may not serve on more than two committees.

By a decision of the Company Board of Directors, the mandate of any or all committee members may be terminated early.

1.7. If necessary, the committees (subcommittees) may, on a temporary or permanent basis, engage the services of experts and/or consultants having the required professional knowledge and experience.

The use of experts and/or consultants shall be subject to the Company procedures governing access to confidential information.

Experts and/or consultants providing services to a committee shall not have a voting right when the committee votes on decisions within its remit.

³ The term "independent director" is interpreted pursuant to para 2.2. of the Regulation on the Rosneft Board of Directors.

⁴ The term "executive director" is interpreted pursuant to para 2.1. of the Regulation on the Rosneft Board of Directors.

2. CHAIRMEN OF COMPANY BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMMITTEES

2.1. Chairmen of the committees shall be elected by the Company Board of Directors from among members of each committee.

2.2. Only an independent director may be Chairman of the Audit Committee. Chairmen of the other committees shall be elected from among their members who are independent directors, and should this not be possible – from among members of the Company Board of Directors who are not executive directors.

2.3. The Chairman of the Company Board of Directors may not be Chairman of the Audit Committee or Chairman of the HR and Remuneration Committee.

2.4. The Chairman of a committee shall ensure efficient organization of its activities, including by:

- calling committee meetings and setting their agendas;
- chairing committee meetings and arranging taking of minutes;
- ensuring a constructive discussion of matters within the committee remit when committee meetings are held in presentio;
- signing and, on behalf of the committee, presenting to the Company Board of Directors recommendations on matters within the committee remit;
- at the request of the Company Board of Directors, updating the Board on the work of the committee; and
- performing other functions stipulated by this Regulation and other internal documents of the Company governing the activities of the committee.

The Chairman of a committee shall be accountable for recommendations of the committee to be brought to the notice of the Company Board of Directors fully and in a timely manner.

3. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF COMPANY BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMMITTEE MEMBERS

3.1. Members of a committee shall have the right to:

- make proposals on the schedule of committee meetings for the next period observing the time lines set by respective internal documents of the Company;
- initiate calling a committee meeting;
